

K.V.R. Govt. COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (AUTONOMOUS), KURNOOL

ACCREDITED BY NAAC WITH 'A' GRADE,

Dr.M. Indira Shanthi
PRINCIPAL
K.V.R Govt College for women
Kurnool

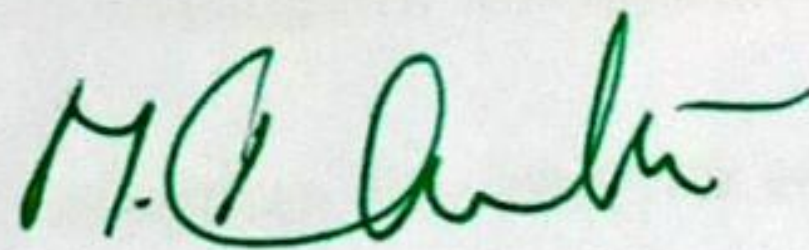

Near Railway Station,
KURNOOL-518004
Andhra Pradesh, India.
Phone : 08518-221090
email: kvrw.kurnool@gmail.com
Website – www.kvrgcw.com

CODE OF ETHICS

KVR GOVT.COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (A) make every effort to safeguard a climate of research draw attention to originality variation and efficiency with high moral standards .the college inspires and directs its teaching staff and students to abide by the highest standers of righteousness, responsibility ,management in academic research .

- The college highlights the researchers to work toward s highest perfection of research while fully respecting academic freedom. The code of ethics in research attributes the general principles to ensure quality and rigor in research while removing miss conduct. the teaching staf and students should add here follow guideline for maintaining integrity and safe guard ethical practices in research.
- The research shall review core values like national development, value system, fostering global competencies, use of technology, quest for excellence, women empowerment and women entrepreneurship development .
- All research activities should be regulated within the suitable ethical, legal and professional frame works commitment and worth. They shall maintain professional and scholastic honor at every level of research .
- The research shall focus on modern issues leading to promotion and sustenance of quality in higher education .they shall treat the potential consequences of research and research finding for sample society.
- Research should be open team work with investigator having different appreciative skills with in the college else where.
- Researchers should work together to strengthen the integrity of research and to review the progress of research, punctuality in transparent manner manner and with a sense of commitment.
- All teaching faculty obtain permission from the principal to apply for minor research project to the GOVt.agencies and to organize seminars, workshops, conferences like CSSR, DST, DBT, FIST,UGC SERO,Hyderabad. The students also take permission from the concerned lecturers. the principal sanctions the amount received from research agencies to the concerned lecturers.

- After completion of MRP, seminar the investigator has submitted the utilization certificate to the sanctioned government agency.
- They should add here all occupational and safety instruction and make proper use of equipment and material resources. They should safeguard that laboratory waste, proper disposal of and research activities do not result in environmental degradation.
  - Research programme shall safeguard rights, nobleness, fitness, welfare and secularism of research scholars, research conditions required human/animal subjects must safeguard that all states regulation and UGC policies are being followed. They shall respect individual, cultural and role differences among research participants and consumers' inoculating those based on age, sex, nationality, language and socio economic status.
  - Research has the moral responsibility to utilize the data collated only for pre determined purposes. They should not reveal the personal information or the identity of participants in written or fraud report or discussions.
  - Research should familiarize themselves with relevant quantitative techniques available for processing data (graphs, photos, images) statistical tools and tests for reality.
  - Researches should organize store and protect data in research undertakings. Extensive data may be stored electronically special attention must be taken not to misinterpret data.
  - Research scholars should make the research outcomes accessible in a manner consistent with the relevant standards of publication. Publications should be done in time and precisely.
  - Research information received in studies done in college level should be published with acknowledgement to the college. If there is any possibility that the copy right or patent application might emerge from the project. The research file an invention of surprising fact with the principal of the college.
  - Researchers should conform that they do not involve exaggeration and manipulation of the research results. They should avoid false declaration lacuna that twist the research data they must safeguard the exactness by giving on relevant data information and research results reported in journals.
  - Teaching faculty and students prevent the plagiarism. They should not produce the same articles/abstracts in two different places. They shall permit and restrict authorship strictly to those who made a significant contribution to the research.
  - The teaching and students should quote clearly all sources information and data that is used. The works of the other research should be quoted whether published or unpublished referring to oral presentation, written works or material on website.

PRINCIPAL
K.V.R. Govt. College for Women
(Autonomous)
KURNOOL.